CHAMPAGNE

We have worked closely with our wine supplier to find a new Champagne house for this year’s list and after tasting many wines, including some of the “Grand Marques” we have chosen Champagne Nicolas Maillart, a small Champagne grower that offers fantastic quality and value for money.

The growing of vines in the Maillart vineyard can be traced back to 1753 and Nicolas, the ninth generation of winemaker that bears the Maillart name, visited us in London to taste through the range with him. We were immediately seduced by the finesse and delicacy of the fruit that is a theme throughout the wines, they really stood head and shoulders above anything else we had tasted. The Brut is beautifully fresh with lots of toasted brioche notes and orchard fruit flavours. The Rosé was the star of the tasting, a beautiful, delicate salmon pink wine with ripe red fruit flavours and a fine mousse. Maillart only produce vintage wines in exceptional years and the 2007 is a wonderful example of a serious vintage Champagne. An equal blend of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay from the very best Premier Cru vineyards and partial fermentation in oak barrels produces a stunningly, complex wine, that was deservedly awarded 92 Parker points at a recent tasting.
